

I believe the NJ Do Not Call List should remain in effect. It is a pleasure not to be interrupted by uninvited solicitations while performing household chores and pleasures.